MATINEE RACES AT FAIR GROUNDS

All Sorts of Sport at The Meet This Week

Much Interest Is Displayed in Run ners, of Which Four Will Be Entered.

HORSES ARE EVENLY MATCHED

With every detail satisfactorily arranged the semi monthly Matinee club race will be held tomorrow afdications point to the biggest crowd lowest today, 70. since the club began giving races. There will likely be many visitors here from surrounding cities. Rivalry between owners of the four runners entered is great.

With the one mile heat race and the running event, the program offers everything possible in the racing line. There will be half mile and mile races and a half mile running

The best horses in the club stables are entered in them, and in several events the starters are within a few se onds of each other's marks.

There will be no more interference from crowds on the race course. The club has fenced off the grand stand and no one will be permitted to stand on the track: Automobile drivers will have to leave their machines far from the track as they frighten the starters and make it impossible to give every driver a fair show.

In the races tomorrow will be seen several horses which will start in the Mayfield annual race meet July 4, 5 and 6, and their work will be watched with interest.

There is talk among members of the club of taking several club horses to Marion, Ill,. for the annual race

Another Feature Race. A match race between the fast trotters of Messrs. J. L. Friedman and O. L. Gregory has been arranged as another special event in the races, and a great deal of interest is

The four jumpers featured tomorrow will be shipped to Mayfield for July 4, 5 and 6. Special interest is taken in this running event, it being freely predicted that the jumpers will go the half mile in fifty seconds. They show up well in the work outs,

ROBBER ASSAULTS HIM AND LEAVES HIM FOR DEAD

Unconscious and with the mark of a heavy blow under his right jaw, Charlie Oster, colored, was found in a box car this morning by employes of the Illinois Central railroad at Dyersburg, Tenn. Oster was brought to the I'Mnois Central hospital on the noon train and at the station was unable to speak, but on arrival at the hospital and after medical attention was able to give an account of his injuries. An unknown negro struck him last night with an iron ber and then as he lay unconscious robbed him of $60 he had in his pocket. Oster worked for the railroad at Dyersburg, being member of an extra gang. This afternoon Oster fully regained consciousness and the doctors think his injuries are not se-
